21st Century it is! And the educational scenario is changing by leaps and bounds. This is the perfect ground to prove the phrase, “Act locally and share globally”. The progress of institutions in switching from a face-to-face learning approach to remote learning is indeed praiseworthy in the Indian context where severe infrastructural and technical challenges still pose a major threat to the delivery of education.

Delhi Public School, ONGC, Nazira has carved an indelible space for itself as an institution of excellence with a remarkable portrayal of Educational Landscape since long!

The petrifying and severe impact of Covid-19 shook the world to its core. But, we at DPS Nazira, keeping “Service before Self” alive, without giving a break, constantly forwarded our goals to ‘motivate’, ‘mould’ and ‘challenge’ the bloomers, mediocre and gifted respectively. While the entire world was under the state of ‘metamorphosis’, exactly the state visualized by Franz Kafka once, and has disrupted every aspect of own lives, we ‘re-imagined’ the educational journey. Every household turned into suitable classrooms. The entire lockdown period was utilized with ‘learning and beyond education’, standing by the changes, facing the pandemic with our resilience and optimistic approach. The school team stood undoubting during those times and successfully took up the task of virtual classroom teaching equipped with changing technology. Apart from academics and co-curricular activities, platforms were provided to ensure the mental wellness of our students.

As said by Hellen Keller, “Alone we can do so little, together we can do so much.” We value the continuous support of parents and stakeholders who have constantly provided their helping hand to achieve this dazzling height.

Amidst all the transformation and the metamorphosis taking place in the teaching-learning arena, DPS ONGC, Nazira has forged ahead in the digital world once again with this publication of an online tapestry of our achievements, our milestones, our beautiful reflections of all that have been... with our lovely Dipsites. This digital reproduction of our print magazine is a result of our hope and confidence in making it convenient for our readers to access this web magazine from their own comfort zone.

Here’s wishing all readers a happy browsing.
Wishing you a happy schooling with us!!

Thank you

Challenges of Education during the Pandemic

"Great things are done by a series of small things brought together" - Vincent Van Gogh

Ajit Neog

Reading is a fantastic activity for children and adults to engage the mind, escape boredom and broaden horizons of knowledge. The COVID-19 pandemic has presented a set of real-world lessons too close and too fresh to be captured by textbooks: How does one manage lives lost? Calculate the damage of lost income? Measure new levels of mental fatigue? In this context, a statement by Madanmohan Rao becomes worth mentioning, 'The pandemic can stop schools, but it cannot stop education.' As educators, students, parents and professionals, the challenge in front of us is the huge change and uncertainty at the moment. However, the importance of education remains consistent.

The pandemic caused further shocks to the system with schools forced to shut down during the lockdown period, and the transition of students and teachers to online teaching-learning. According to Observer Research Foundation, about 250 million children in India were adversely affected due to school closures due to the early lockdowns imposed by the government in response to Covid-19. Several children from less-privileged circumstances ended up dropping out of schools and some were forced to take up jobs in order to support their families who were dealing with pandemic-related deaths and income loss.

In such a situation, the responsibility to hone and chisel the young minds was bestowed upon the educators and it was a really challenging situation to come up to this expectation. In that process, teachers shifted to nurturing and encouraging through screens – with little training. Although private, urban schools in India were better adapted to new circumstances, government schools have struggled to transition from traditional 'chalk and talk' method of teaching to an online ecosystem, especially in rural India. The challenges faced by the Indian education system were amplified during the pandemic. When millions of young students were urged to stay at home like the other members of their families, and educational institutions remained closed, online education appeared to be the only alternative to ensure the continuity of education of these students. But the question remains as to whether we were prepared to utilise these substitute means of providing education in our country without diluting the quality of education. The short answer to this question is — we were not. The standard online education is still out of the reach of many students in our schools, colleges and universities, who have limited or no access to computers and internet connectivity at home.

We must admit that face-to-face interactions between teachers and students along with vibrant and healthy debates amongst peers within the classroom is an integral part of quality education. But it also gives us an opportunity to turn this crisis into a driving force for achieving India's aim to provide quality education to all. In this aspect, the pandemic acted as a catalyst for digital adoption in school education. With schools reopening in many states, it is important that a careful strategy is built in to smoothen the transition of children back to school after more than 15 months of home-based learning. This transition has to consider the learning losses which had happened over the previous year as well and take a futuristic approach to build a resilient system which can withstand any such future obstacles. In this aspect, a famous quote by Mahatma Gandhi becomes worth mentioning, "Strength does not come from physical capacity. It comes from an indomitable will." So, a collaborative support to cultivate mental, intellectual as well as emotional resilience in our young minds is the need of the hour and it is none but us educators who need to be the harbinger of future hope and prosperity for our students.

साहित्य मानव-मन के विचारों का मेल है।
शब्द और अर्थों का अनोखा खेल है।
चलती है जब पन्नों पर कलम की स्याही पूर्ण धारा,
तब उभर कर आ जाती है,
हमारे देश और समाज की विचारधारा।

उज्ज्वल एवं सचेतन विचारों के साथ हमारे विद्यालय के नन्हें-नन्हें कहानीकार, निबंधकार तथा अनुभवी लेखकों के विचारों को बहुत ही सुंदर तरीके से सँजोकर, सँवारकर और परिष्कृत कर भावपूर्ण लिखनी के साथ दिल्ली पब्लिक स्कूल, ओ.एन.जी.सी.; नाज़िरा की पत्रिका 'डिप स्नैप्स' का यह अंक आप सभी के लिए प्रस्तुत है।
कोविड-19 के दौरान हमने बहुत ही कठिन परिस्थितियों का सामना किया है। हम और हमारे विद्यार्थियों ने अनुभव किया है कि परिवार, देश, समाज और राष्ट्र हमारे लिए कितनी अहम भूमिका रखते हैं। एक वक्त के लिए हमें मानो ऐसा लगा था कि

रोते-रोते कितनों के आँसू सूख गए।
कितने अपने हमसे दूर चले गए।
यह युद्ध महाभारत के युद्ध से भी भारी था।
क्योंकि यह तो बिना अस्त्र का युद्ध था।

इन विषम परिस्थितियों में भी ज्ञान आदान-प्रदान का साथ हमने छोड़ा नहीं, अपने अनुभवों को हमने तोड़ा नहीं, उन्हें समेटकर सँजोकर हमने रखा और आज आप सबके सामने विद्यार्थी-विचारों के संकलन के रूप में कहानी, कविता, लघुकथा, संस्मरण तथा विचारों का नवीन संकलन प्रस्तुत है। यह पत्रिका इस बात का प्रमाण है कि जीवन कभी ठहरता नहीं। हमारे विद्यार्थी कभी रुके नहीं, ठहरे नहीं और अपने विचारों का संप्रेषण करते रहे।

हमारी पत्रिका का लक्ष्य है स्वस्थ सकारात्मक तथा सफल समाज का निर्माण करना। यह संभव है विद्यार्थियों के विचार, अनुभव, कर्तव्य, कर्म तथा जिम्मेदारियों के सहयोग से। विद्यार्थियों के बीच इस पत्रिका ने अपना एक अहम स्थान बना लिया है। संपादक-मंडल एवं विद्यार्थियों की सकारात्मक सोच, कर्तव्य-निष्ठा व निरंतर प्रयास से पत्रिका का प्रत्येक अंक रुचिकर व निखरता जा रहा है। आनेवाले प्रत्येक अंकों में भी हमारी यह पत्रिका उत्कृष्टतम तथा जीवन उपयोगी हो इसलिए हम निरंतर प्रयासरत रहेंगे।

मैं सदैव इस तथ्य को मानती हूँ कि ज्ञान, कल्पना, विचारों का संगम, अनुभव का संप्रेषण शिक्षा का मूल आधार है। इन तत्वों को सदैव जीवंत रखने का हर संभव प्रयास हमने इस पत्रिका के माध्यम से किया है।
