REPORT ON THE PRERANA: AN EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING PROGRAMME

Date: 19 to 25 January, 2025

Batch No. 43, Prerana, Gujarat

The Prerana: An experiential learning programme is an initiative of the Ministry of Education, Government of India to empower the Youth of country by offering a meaningful, unique, and inspiring experience to students selected from all districts of country. At the heart of this curriculum is the philosophy of value-based education which is also cornerstone of the NEP 2020.

In a week-long residential programme, every week, 20 students (10 boys & 10 girls) across the country are selected to attend the program along with 10 guardian teachers from various districts. Subordhana Das, a student of (XII Humanities)-DPS ONGC, NAZIRA represented the district and state of Assam in Prerana Utsav. As a selected participant of Batch-43, Subordhana Das embarked on a transformative journey at the Vernacular School in Vadnagar Mehsana Gujrat. This unique learning experience focused on:

- Value-based education
- Leadership training
- Cultural heritage
- Hands-on Experiential learning

We acknowledge and appreciate Subordhana Das's enthusiasm, dedication, and outstanding representation of Assam in this prestigious national program.
